

The Joy of Educational Resources

Library Aid's (twelfth) shipment to thirty schools in the Solomon Islands in March 2026

Busy volunteers sorting books

Full shipping container

Sailing the high seas

Destination – Honiara, Solomon Islands

Unloading the container

Boxes put in piles according to category

Allocated books reach a school

Excited children with their 'new' books

Students and teacher with some books

Young children enjoying alphabet cards

Three days and nights to some islands

Some boxes ended up in far-flung islands

Happy to show off their 'new' books

We will soon know the alphabet

A school's allocation of books

We will take care of our books

Thank you, we love the donated books

These books are great

Thank you to everyone who has been involved in getting these boxes of books to us
